On December 20, 2009, Mr. Jamar Lewis was arrested by Trenton Police Department and charged with the following: Harassment.

Details of the arrests are as follows: According to Mrs. Esther Lewis, she and her husband of 13 years, Jamar Lewis, got into a verbal argument when he arrived at her residence. Lewis threatened her and told her to leave the residence or he would drag her out of it. Due to his actions, Mrs. Lewis felt threatened by her husband.

In addition, Mrs. Lewis stated that on December 18, 2009, her husband grabbed her arm and injured her while at the residence. He grabbed her arm and attempted to move her to the side as she was in his way. Based on the victim's statements and further questioning by officers, an arrest warrant was issued for

Mr. Lewis.

On December 21, 2009, Mr. Lewis was arrested and taken to the Mercer County Correctional Facility. Bail had been set at 5,000 with no 10% option. The offender was able to post bail and was released from custody. The case remains pending.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
